NGĀI TAHU Property

Neighbourhood named after rainbow and spirit guardian.

The sixth Wigram Skies neighbourhood, Kahukura, is now available for sale.

Kahukura is one of the Maori names for a rainbow and also refers to a local peak on the Port Hills, known as "Te Tihi o Kahukura" - "The citadel of Kahukura".

Kahukura was the spirit guardian invoked by local tohunga (expert/priest) and appealed to for advice and omens in times of war.

Each hapū (sub-tribe) had an image of Kahukura, often a small carved wooden figure, which was kept in a tapu (sacred) place.
